

Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy
Appendix 1: Prohibited Conduct

Capitalized terms in this Appendix are defined in the Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.

The general categories of prohibited conduct as set out in this Appendix are deemed to include similar conduct using new technology and similar conduct occurring in new or novel situations.

1. Protection of Individuals

A Student shall not cause or threaten to cause harm to another individual, or endanger the safety of another individual. Prohibited conduct includes, but is not limited to:

- a) stalking, bullying, or otherwise engaging in a pattern of behaviour directed at a specific person or group of persons that would cause a reasonable individual to fear for their safety or suffer emotional distress;
- b) assaulting another individual sexually, or threatening another individual with sexual assault or committing an act of sexual harassment toward another individual;
- c) engaging in hazing or any act that harms, or could reasonably be expected to harm the mental or physical health or safety of another person, for the purpose of initiation, admission into, affiliation with, or as a condition for continued membership in a group or organization; and
- d) engaging in a course of vexatious conduct, bullying or other harassment that is directed at one or more persons and that is based on grounds protected by the Alberta Human Rights Act.

2. Protection of Property

A Student shall not:

- a) damage, deface, or destroy the property of another individual, corporation or other entity, including the University;
- b) create a condition that unnecessarily endangers or threatens destruction of the property of another individual, corporation or other entity, including the University;
- c) use University property, facilities, equipment or materials for an unauthorized purpose;
- d) enter or remain in any University building or area without authorization when the building or area is officially closed or restricted for designated purposes or to designated individuals; or

- e) misuse the University electronic communications system or otherwise violate the Electronic Communications Policy.

3. Protection of University Functions, Activities and Services

A Student shall not:

- a) obstruct another individual or group of individuals from carrying on their legitimate activities, or from speaking or associating with others; or
- b) interfere with the functions, activities and services of the University or a student group or groups such that the function, activity or service is obstructed or disrupted. Examples of functions, activities and services include:
 - i. classes, lectures, seminars, tutorials and labs,
 - ii. social, cultural and athletic events,
 - iii. field trips,
 - iv. computing services,
 - v. registration services,
 - vi. library services,
 - vii. residence and food services, and
 - viii. governance meetings and judicial hearings.

4. False Information and Identification

A Student shall not:

- a) knowingly provide false information to any office or individual acting on behalf of the University or student group;
- b) alter or forge any University document or record, including identification materials, issued by the University;
- c) allow any University document or record, including identification materials, issued for one's own use to be used by another;
- d) use any University document or record other than for its authorized purpose; or
- e) act for or on behalf of the University unless expressly authorized to do so.

5. Possession or Use of Dangerous Objects, Drugs or Alcohol

A Student shall not:

- a) possess, use, manufacture, sell, exchange or otherwise distribute firearms, explosives or other weapons in violation of any applicable law;
- b) possess, use, manufacture, produce, sell, exchange or otherwise distribute any drug in violation of any applicable law; or
- c) possess, consume, furnish, manufacture, sell, exchange or otherwise distribute any alcoholic beverages except as permitted by applicable law and University policy.

6. Aiding in the Commission of an Offence

A Student shall not:

- a) encourage or aid another Student in the commission of Student Non-Academic Misconduct.

7. Contravention of Other Laws and University Policies

A Student shall not:

- a) contravene any provision of the Criminal Code of Canada or any other federal, provincial, or municipal law;
- b) contravene any University Policy except that a contravention of the Student Academic Misconduct Policy shall be dealt with under that policy and not as Student Non-Academic Misconduct.

8. Failure to Comply with a Sanction

A Student shall not:

- a) disregard or ignore a sanction imposed in accordance with the Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy.
